

Institute of Political Science of Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University

Konrad Adenauer Stiftung in Poland

Collegium Interethnicum Foundation

Polish European Community Studies Association (PECSA)

invite to a seminar

Perceptions of the European Union in the International Relations

24th of November 2017

Uniwersytet Kardynała Stefana Wyszyńskiego w Warszawie
ul. Wóycickiego 1/3 house 21
room 327

10.00-10:15 OPENING

Dr. Piotr Burgoński, Vice-Director of the Institute of Political Science for the research and international cooperation, Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw

10:15-12:30 DISCUSSION

Moderator: Dr. Anna Skolimowska, Institute of Political Science, Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw

Prof. Paweł Borkowski, The EU in the International relations. Methodological and empirical challenges, Institute of European Studies, University of Warsaw

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Adrian Corpadean, Romania's EU agenda in matters of international relations: specific interests, challenges and prospects, Babeş-Bolyai University of Cluj-Napoca, Faculty of European Studies

Dr. Beata Piskorska, Is the EU a model of soft power in the Eastern neighbourhood? Revision of the strategy, Institute of Political Science and International Affairs, The John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin

Dr. Olga Barburska, The political and ideological basis of the Russian perception of the European Union, Centre for Europe at the University of Warsaw, PECSA

Dr. Anna Skolimowska, Normative identity of the EU – state of art, Institute of Political Science, Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw

12:45 LUNCH